In 200 works & two floors of the museum, Motopoétique exhibition evokes the bike in contemporary art and the relationship between man and the machine. Because for Paul Ardenne, curator of the exhibition and author of Bike, our Love, «the motorbike is paradigmatic of the connection that a man can establish with the machine...

The title of this exhibition is inspired directly from the pages of a compilation entitled XXX Anecdotes and drawings by Morton Feldman, acquired by the Museum of Contemporary Art in Lyon in 2003.

This formula, which is as much a call to live sound, spatial and temporal experience as a spiritual quest, a question of listening will be the focal point of the three visual and sound installations.

3 installations of 3 composers
in search of sounds : Morton Feldman, Ulf Langheinrich and Heiner Goebbels.
